Symphony Hall Birmingham
Saturday 17th March 2012 at 7.30pm

SH
SYMPHONY HALL BIRMINGHAM

EQUINOX

CULTURES IN HARMONY

मिले सुर मेरा तुम्हारा, तो सुर बने हमारा

Umoja

نحن واحدة

团结就是力量

Solidarność

Unus pro omnibus, omnes pro uno

Birmingham's musical cultures celebrate the Olympic Values of Excellence, Respect, Friendship.

Presenter: Anita Bhalla OBE // Conductor: Adrian Lucas

The concert will climax with the world premiere of a specially commissioned work by Midlands composer Christopher Long, celebrating the rich diversity of Birmingham's choral cultures.

inspired by London 2012

EQUINOX

CULTURES IN HARMONY

An inter-cultural choral celebration inspired by the 2012 Olympic Games.

Join us for a feast of emotion and sound created by over 300 choral and percussion performers reflecting the cultural diversity of young people and adults living in Birmingham and the West Midlands. It will include the world premiere of a specially commissioned ground-breaking work for all participants by award winning Midlands composer Christopher Long.

FEATURING

- Birmingham Schools' Azaad Dhol Group
- Bournville Young Singers
- Chinese Community Centre-Birmingham's Wan Cheuk Choir
- Echo Doliny Polish Folk Choir
- Sanchita Pal Ensemble
- Town Hall Gospel Choir
- Birmingham Schools' Percussion Ensemble
- Black Voices
- City of Birmingham Choir
- Fieshah Amlak Drummers
- SHAAM
- World Music Youth Choir

Ticket Prices*: £10; £15; £20; £25; Children 16 and under £5 in all areas

Discounts available on tickets £20 and above: -

- Young persons 25 and under – EITHER book ahead and save 50%; OR standby £5 from 1hour prior to performance
- Groups (10 or more) 10% plus one free ticket for the group organizer
- Disabled patrons 50% for themselves and one companion.

* Plus £2 fee per transaction on all bookings except purchases made in person at theTicket Office.

Ticket Office: 0121 780 3333 or buy on-line at www.thsh.co.uk

www.citychoir.org.uk/equinox

FACEBOOK: http://www.facebook.com/EquinoxConcert

Event promoted by

CITY OF BIRMINGHAM CHOIR

inspired by London 2012